All works are for sale. The WAH Center’s commission is 40% and artist receives 60% of the sales price listed above. Although the WAH Center will take all regular and customary precautions against loss or damage of the works lent by the artist(s), the WAH Center cannot be held responsible for loss or damage of those works. If the artist chooses to maintain his or her insurance, the WAH Center must be supplied with a Certificate of Insurance naming the WAH Center as an additional assured.

*The WAH Center reserves the right to maintain exhibition quality, all accepted works may not be included in the show, not only because of poor quality, but also due to #1) the limited space, or #2) overall show appearance or #3) too fragile to handle, or #4) In case there is a significant discrepancy between the submitted image of the work and actual work, we may not accept art that does not meet our standards. I, the artist/lender, have understood the above and agree to hold the WAH Center harmless in case of damage or loss of my artwork and I understand that the WAH Center will do its utmost to avoid either.
